VII. Biographical note:

The ledger shows the sales of the George H. Ford Company for the years 1897-1899. During these years Mr. Ford's jewelry business was located in his building on the southeast corner of State and Chapel Streets. The specialty of Mr. Ford's company was engraving, and inside the ledger's front cover an advertising card has been placed, showing some examples of the company's handiwork.

For further information on the Ford Co. see New Haven Old and New (MSS #1) vol.2, p.44A-45 and v.4, p.70-71.

VIII. Analysis:

The collection consists of one oversized ledger, located on the "oversize" shelf.
